WEDNESDAY, July 25, 1750.

IN Pursuance to the Order of the honourable the Lower House of Assembly, at their Session in May last, the following Bill, which did not pass into a Law, is here inserted, viz.

An Act for Processioning Lands, in order to perpetuate the Bounds thereof; and for other purposes therein mentioned.

FOR preventing Controversies that may hereafter arise about the Bounds of Lands within this Province;

Be it Enacted by the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the Authority of the same, That once in every Four Years, during the continuance of this Act, the Bounds of every Person's Land may be processioned (or gone round) and the Land Marks renewed in manner hereafter mentioned; and in order thereto, the Justices of every County within this Province, at August Court, which shall be held in the Year Seventeen Hundred and Fifty, and at August Court in every Fourth Year thereafter, by Order of Court, shall direct the Vestry of each Parish within their County respectively, to divide their Parishes into so many Precincts as to them shall seem most convenient for Processioning every particular Person's Land, in their several and respective Parishes, and to appoint the particular Times, between the first Day of September and the first Day of March then next ensuing, when such Processioning shall be made in every Precinct, and also appoint at least Two intelligent honest Freeholders of every Precinct, to see such Processioning performed, and take and return to the Clerk of the County Court, an account of every Person's Land they shall Procession, and of the Persons present at the same processioning, which Order shall be signified in Writing to the Church-Wardens of every Parish within every respective County in this Province, by the Clerk of the Court, within Twenty Days after the making thereof; and thereupon the Church-wardens shall cause a Vestry to be summoned to meet, within Ten Days after the receipt of such Order, at which Vestry the said order of Court shall be exactly and punctually obeyed in every particular, and thereupon Notice shall be punctually given by the Church-Wardens at the Church or Chapel of the Parish, at least three Sundays next before the same is to be performed, of the Persons and Times so appointed by the Vestry, for Processioning, in every several Precinct as aforesaid: And also the Clerk of the County Court shall Record the Accounts of the Two Freeholders of every Precinct, made and returned to him as aforesaid, in a Book to be kept for that purpose: And that no Person may pretend Ignorance of his Duty herein, the Vestries shall and are hereby required to direct what Two particular Freeholders shall attend and perform the processioning aforesaid, in each Precinct or Precincts in their Parish respectively, which said Two Persons so appointed to attend and perform the Processioning in each respective Precinct, shall and they are hereby obliged to act together, and not singly, except in case of Sickness or some other Incapacity; And if any Parish shall happen to lie in several Counties, then the Orders of the Court in each County shall be signified as aforesaid to the Church-Wardens thereof as aforesaid, and shall also be obeyed by the Vestry in manner as is before directed; And if any County Court shall, at any time hereafter fail to perform their Duty herein, every Justice of the Peace in such County shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds Current Money; And if any Vestry shall at any time hereafter fail to perform their Duty herein, every particular Member of such Vestry shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds Current Money; And if any Church-Warden or Church-Wardens shall at any time hereafter fail to perform his or their Duty herein, every such Church Warden shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds Current Money; And if the Clerk of any Court shall hereafter fail to perform his or their Duty herein, every such Clerk shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds Current Money; which said Forfeitures shall be one moiety to the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary, his Heirs, and Successors for and towards the better support of the Public School in the County where such Forfeiture shall happen, and the other moiety to him or them that will inform or sue for the same, to be recovered with Costs in any Court of the County where such Forfeiture shall happen, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Essoyn, Protection or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

Provided Always, That upon any legal Process brought against any Justice of Peace, Vestry-man, Church Warden, or Clerk, for the Breach of this Act, if the Defendant or Defendants shall give sufficient Evidence to the satisfaction of such Court or Jury, that he was necessarily absent from such Court of Vestry, or, that being there, he offered to do his Duty in pursuance of this Act, then such Process had, shall be dismissed, and the Complainant be adjudged to pay the Cost thereof; And if any other Person not having lawful Excuse, shall fail to perform his Duty herein, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds Current Money, to be recovered with Costs of suit, in manner aforesaid, by the Church Warden or Church-Wardens of the Parish wherein such Forfeiture shall be incurred, to be applied for and towards the purchasing of Ornaments for the Church or Chapel of such Parish.

And be it further Enacted, That the Procession of the Bounds of any Person's Land at four several times of Processioning in manner aforesaid, shall be held, deemed and taken to be sufficient to settle the Bounds so as the same may never thereafter be altered.

Provided always, That the Procession and Settlement of the Bounds of any Lands, belonging to any Person being only Tenant for Life of the said Lands, shall not bar or conclude the Heir in Reversion or Remainder to the said Land, but that such Heir may at any time in Five Years after the Death of the Tenants for Life, controvert the said Bounds, as if such Procession and Settlement had never been made.

Provided also, That the Processioning and Settling the Bounds of any Lands belonging to any Person being within the Age of One and Twenty Years, Feme Covert, Non Compos mentis, Imprisoned, or out of the Province, shall not be Conclusive to such Person until after the Expiration of Five Years from and after the said several Incapacities shall be removed and determined.

And that the manner of Processioning may be clear and fully understood, Be it further Enacted, That the said Two Persons appointed by the respective Vestries to Procession in every Precinct, shall call upon the Owner or Owners of every Tract or Parcel of Land to be by them Processioned, and with them or their proper Agents or Attorneys, and such other credible Person who shall think proper to be present, go to the Beginning or some other remarkable Boundary of such Land as is to be Processioned, and from thence, if more than one Bounder, from Bounder to Bounder, until the whole Tract or Parcel be gone round; and if any of the Bounded Trees of the same be decayed or decaying, to set up some room thereof a Stone, Post, or other lasting Bounds, which shall remain as a Bounder of such Land for ever, unless the Parties conterned in the adjoining Lands to be affected thereby, shall convert the same within Eight Years after the Fourth Procession made; any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted, That where any Lands shall be found Vacant or Escheatable in such Proceedings, on which shall be the Plantation or Improvement of any Person or Persons, or be and lie next adjoining to the Dwelling Plantation of any the Inhabitants, that then and in such case, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to take up such Land or Lands Vacant or Escheat, until they shall have first applied to the Person or Persons whose Improvement or Plantation it is next adjoining, and that they refuse or neglect for and during the space and term of Six Months, to proceed to the securing and taking up such Vacant or Escheat Lands; but that at the Expiration of the said Six Months, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons so as aforesaid first discovering the same, and applying as aforesaid, to take up and secure the same.

And in order to prevent Disputes and bad Neighbourhood where Vacant Land may happen to be in the midst or contiguous to Tracts or Parcels of Land belonging to several Persons, Be it Enacted, That in case such Persons, or any Two or more of them may incline to secure such Vacancy, such Two or more Persons as shall be legally insisted to the Lands contiguous to such Vacancy, in their own Right, or in the Right of any Infant to whom they or either of them shall be Guardian, shall have the Pre-emption aforesaid, and liberty of taking up such Vacancy in proportion to the number of Acres contained in the contiguous Tracts in which they are so as aforesaid Interested. Provided the same Vacancy shall be surveyed or taken up within Six Months next after the Discovery thereof: And the Person or Persons neglecting or refusing to comply with the terms before-mentioned, shall not have any Benefit of the Privileges hereby intended. Provided also, that such Guardian who is in Possession of any Lands belonging to any Infant or Minor contiguous to such Vacancy as aforesaid, shall make use of the Liberty aforesaid to the Benefit of such Infant, and to the Use and Benefit of no other Person or Persons whatsoever.

And be it further Enacted, That where any Guardian shall secure as aforesaid, any Vacancy contiguous to the Lands of any Infant under his Guardianship for the Benefit of such Minor, if the said Infant, when he or she shall attain unto the Age of Twenty one Years, shall refuse to pay and allow unto his or her said Guardian, all his just Charges, Expences and Disbursements, in and about the securing the Vacancy as aforesaid intended for his or her Benefit, it shall and may in such case be lawful for such Guardian to hold and enjoy such Vacancy to his own proper use.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Controversy shall arise concerning the Notice being given as aforesaid, within Two Years after the taking up of such Vacant or Escheatable Lands, that then the Onus probandi shall be upon the Person who ought to have given the Notice as aforesaid; and if no such Controversy doth arise in Two Years, Possession shall be held and taken as good Proof that Notice was given according to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

This Act to continue for Fifteen Years from the End of this present Session of Assembly, and to the End of the next Session of Assembly which shall happen after the Expiration of Fifteen Years.

From the Paris A la main, April 6.

THE new works which were lately begun at Pizzighitone, are actually finish'd; and that fortress is at present in a very good posture of defence.

Orders will very shortly likewise be issued out for the reparation and improvement of several other forts belonging to our Duchy.

The matter which was then and there principally in debate, was the several encampments which had been proposed to be form'd the ensuing Summer; and we are assured, that it was then resolved, that instead of forming the troops into several camps, as was at first intended, there should be but two only; one on the Elbe in Bohemia, and the other in Styria.

Petersburgh, April 7. The court has received an express from Constantinople, whose dispatches import, that the new grand Visir had declared to the ministers of the Christian powers, that his sublime highness persists in the resolution to live in a perfect harmony with the said powers, and to observe inviolably the treaties contracted with them. By which the intelligent apprehend, that the Porte will break no treaties with one power, unless it be in order to fulfil her engagements with another.

Naples, April 14. By the last advices which we have received here from Palermo, we are informed, that the Algerine corsairs had lately made themselves masters, not far from Alicant, of two of our ships laden with corn; but that the crews of both were all happily sav'd, except one man, who was unfortunately killed by a musket shot.

A courier lately arrived here from Madrid, but the contents of the dispatches which he brought with him, remain as yet in impenetrable secret.

LONDON.

April 16. The Anson and Kent men of war will speedily be put into commission.

Letters from Cadiz dated the 31st past, mention, that the St. Miguel, a register ship, from Vera Cruz, was off Cape St. Mary, without a main mast, and that the commander was in some pain for her, lest she should be met with by the Algerines, who had appeared in sight of that bay. The same letters add, that the captain of the Algerine cruizer, of 32 guns, who had stopped three or four English vessels, had been severely bastinadoed for it at Algiers, and was render'd incapable of serving any more.

April 23. Letters from the Russian provinces bordering on Poland all agree, that many regiments are filing off from the heart of that empire towards Ingermania, Livonia, and Finland.

Advices from Dantzick, Elbing, and some other parts of Polish Prussia, inform us, that they are forming large magazines in Ducal Prussia; that they talk of having a camp between Koningsberg and Welau; and that, besides these warlike dispositions, they are building a considerable number of prams along the Vistula.

From Hamburgh they write, that the bankers of that city have, within these few days, remitted considerable sums, from France and Spain, to the Swedish court; which we may suppose will greatly contribute to preserve peace in the North. They add, that the Swedes continue to raise recruits with the utmost diligence at Hamburgh, Lubeck, and other places in that neighbourhood.

Some letters from India, brought over in admiral Boscawen's fleet, take notice, that the French East India company are making several new settlements, and building forts, particularly one within sight of Madrass: That they have actually a greater force in the East Indies than when they took Fort St. George; and that the English settlements, in case of a new war, run a great risque of being swallowed up, if not timely reinforced.

April 24. On Sunday last the Deal-Castle man of war, one of admiral Boscawen's squadron, arrived at Portsmouth.

April 25. Letters from Carthagena, in the Levant, dated the 15th instant, mention, that 4 new Javeques, of 36 guns each, were fitting out in that harbour, and would put to sea next month to cruize upon the Moors, in company with two Spanish men of war, that were expected to join them from Ferrol. The same letters add, that a large Dutch fly boat was arrived from Santander, with 312 cannon, of different bores, designed for the ships that are to be built for his Catholic majesty's service; and that a great quantity of timber was already received for the same purpose.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Tuesday the 17th Instant, came on at Queen's-Town, the Election of a Member to serve for Queen-Anne's County, when Mr. John Tillotson was chosen by a considerable majority.

This Morning sail'd, the Speedwell, Capt. James Creagh, from this Place, for London.

Some few Days since, James Mitchell, a Labouring Man of this Place, going out of a Flat into Rappahannock River in Virginia, got intangled in a great Number of Sea-Nettles, and was drowned.

Custom-House, ANNAPOLIS, Entered,
